

HEART & SOUL FOUNDATION

Aly Morgan-Alessio of Heart & Soul is a recording artist and spokesperson for the “Silent Witness Initiative.” Through the non-profit foundation Aly, as a survivor of domestic violence is on mission of hope, help and healing for the hurting women and children associated with domestic violence. Aly has written the song “Silent Witness” to express her own experiences and connect those whose lives have also been impacted. The video to the song pays tribute to the women and children who have died represented by the Silent Witness’s, the loved one’s left behind and a plea for what we can do to help stop the violence. Our intent is to continue to raise awareness to the tragedies of domestic violence and do it through the media.

Heart & Soul Foundation is making available the CD and the music video in a variety of formats for distribution to local broadcasting networks with the upcoming (October) domestic violence month. Our desire is to also help support the efforts of each local Silent Witness association by allowing them to offer the CD and the music video for sale or donation and keep 50% of the proceeds. We have arranged with the Duplication Company (The Video Group-Dallas, TX.) to handle your request for broadcast quality video for the networks and to provide you with quantities of VHS, DVD or CD rom’s to offer for fundraising. The following is a breakdown of how the pricing will work for groups. You may call or fax your request for the music video to them directly and they will ship to you for distribution to the networks and individuals.

We would like to get the VHS of the Silent Witness music video out to each of you to review as quickly as possible to consider presenting to the local networks and use as a fundraiser. To order a single VHS of the Silent Witness music video for review please e-mail heartnsoulduo@aol.com or call 800-537-8748. The cost for this single video is $10.00, which includes shipping & handling; we can include the music CD for another $7.49/each.
